Markow Walker, P.A.

Cordially invites you to attend its seminar on
Practical Considerations in Analyzing Insurance Claims

Tuesday & Wednesday
February 23 & 24, 2010

The Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame & Museum
1152 Lakeland Drive
Jackson, Mississippi
(601) 982-8264

Markow Walker, P.A., is again offering its annual seminar for clients and other interested parties which is designed to provide training to those involved in the claims process, offer suggestions for effective and cost-efficient claims handling, and give interested parties tools for minimizing liability and expenses on claims. In addition to covering each of the topics listed on the agenda, there will be special emphasis on recent decisions from the Mississippi Supreme Court, Mississippi Court of Appeals, and the Federal Courts which touch upon these areas.

Day 1 will consist of an analysis of the elements necessary to prove a workers' compensation claim with special emphasis on recent developments in the law.

Day 2 is designed to offer an overview of general liability law including uninsured motorist claims, premises liability, insurance issues, products liability, bad faith liability, wrongful death claims, automobile torts and other issues frequently encountered in insurance defense.

The registration fee will be $80.00 for one session or $125.00 for both sessions. Additional copies of the seminar materials are available for $20.00 per book. Travel, lodging, and meal accommodations are the responsibility of attendees.

Application has been made to the Mississippi Department of Insurance for approval of 12 hours of Continuing Education Requirements for adjusters and agents for the two-day event or 6 hours for a single day.
